

NAUTICAL ORGANISATION NOTE N°2 TO SKIPPERS' INFORMATION

The lookout post at the Grand Port Maritime du Havre remains the sole reference authority regarding navigation in the Le Havre channel and in its basins

All boats must comply with their instructions.

However, in order to facilitate your arrival, you'll find some practical information below:

The arrival of the boats extends from 10:00 am on Wednesday 16 October to 14:00 pm on Friday 18 October.

You have the opportunity to anticipate your arrival by getting in contact with PIERRE HAYS so as to pin down your ETA, but under no circumstances can this be done prior to Saturday 12 October.

✓ CASTING OFF FROM THE PORT OF REGISTRY (24/7)

- Contact Pierre Hays as a matter of priority on +33(0)6 98 31 48 78 and/or pierre.hays22@gmail.com

- Give an approximate ETA and AIS identification in line with the boat's race name
It is imperative that your AIS is emitting during your delivery trip

✓ PASSING BARFLEUR

Send a SMS to Pierre Hays on +33(0)6 98 31 48 78 with :
name of the boat / AIS ID/an updated ETA

✓ PASSING THE LHA MARK

- Keep to the north of the channel, along port lateral buoys
- As a matter of priority, contact "Le Havre Port" on channel 12
- keep on VHF watch channel 12 and 16
- then contact Pierre HAYS on +33(0)6 98 31 48 78

✓ PICKING UP OF THE BOATS BETWEEN LH12-LH14

If necessary, contact Pierre Hays : call sign "Transat Security" via VHF 06

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION :

- Passage through the SAS Quinette (Quinette lock gates) is done in consultation with Pierre Hays
- It is not possible to wait in the marina.
- Joined document : information on the times to pass through the Quinette loch and the plan of the bassins.
- Boats exiting for sea trials or images can only do so in daylight hours with 24 hours notice and this is subject to approval by the race management.
